John R. Aube

Mr. Aube is a partner in the firm, focusing in the areas of banking, financing and real estate law. Since 1977, Mr. Aube has provided legal service to the financial community in Hawaii. He represents two of the three largest banks in the State, as well as financial institutions on the US mainland and Japan that have business interests in Hawaii. His legal expertise, along with his 35+ years of experience in Hawaii, allow him to provide a valuable perspective and strategic guidance to his clients as they originate, formulate and consummate their business dealings in Hawaii's unique island community. Since much of Hawaii's wealth is real estate oriented, Mr. Aube's vast knowledge of real estate law and practice in Hawaii enhances his clients' ability to evaluate and take business transactions from start to finish.
